Eight Indians at Fort Huachuca are all that remain of the famous Indian Scouts who led Uncle Sam's frontier fighters in their incessant war on marauding Apaches and renegades in the days before law and order was established in Arizona and other Western territories. They are Sgt. Sinew L. Riley, Corp. Antonio, Allejo Quintero, William Major, Jim Lane, Kessay Y-32, Jesse Billy and Andrew Payson.

DISTRIBUTED BY LOLLESGARD SPECIALTY CO., TUCSON, ARIZONA

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C. T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

C-20 Last of U. S. Army's Indian Scouts, Fort Huachuca, Arizona

PHOTO BY J. ROBT. BURNS PHOTO

2B-H1535